Peter KAMMERSTAETTER, Provincial Secretary of the Communist Party of Upper Austria and member of the Central Committee, LINZ, stated in an address that the Central Committee asks for more reporting by Communist Party functionaries on the work of the sections and local organizations. The provincial headquarters should institute this work. The idea of socialist competition among the individual party organizations only materialized in some individual cases in VIENNA. It is imperative that the provincial organizations adopt this measure, as it is much better than any other method for increasing the activities of the comrades.
